Managing Partner, Head of Corporate & Commercial and Capital Markets Practice

Eugene is the Managing Partner of Gan & Lee, where he leads the firm's Corporate & Commercial and Capital Markets Practice. He graduated with an LLB (Hons) and an MSc in Law and Finance from Queen Mary University of London, and completed the Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC) in the UK. A member of Lincoln's Inn, he was called to the Bar of England & Wales in 2018 and admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the High Court of Malaya in 2019. Before co-founding Gan & Lee, Eugene was a Senior Associate at Cheang & Ariff, a member firm of WPG, a regional law network established by WongPartnership LLP.

His key practice areas include capital markets, mergers & acquisitions (M&As), securities regulation, and general corporate advisory. He regularly acts for private and public companies, financial institutions, and private equity funds on M&As, takeovers, privatisations and fundraising exercises, as well as corporate and commercial matters.

Eugene has extensive experience advising on public and private M&A transactions, both domestic and cross-border. He also has significant experience in capital markets transactions, including IPOs on the Main, ACE and LEAP Markets of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad, and listings on the Singapore Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. In addition, he has advised on rights issues, warrants issues, share subscriptions, private placements and employee share schemes.

Apart from transactional work, Eugene advises clients on establishing businesses in Malaysia, as well as on regulatory and compliance matters across industries including F&B, consumer goods, distributive trade, manufacturing, logistics, property development, financial services, healthcare, education, cryptocurrency, payment systems, and electronic trading platforms.
